Dedication

As we finish our last year in high school we think back over the period of twelve years in school and find that we owe much to the efforts of our teachers and parents.

We, the Senior class of nineteen hundred fifty-four, dedicate this issue of the Jeffersonian to the Parents and Teachers Association of Jefferson Township. We are very thankful to our Parents and Teachers Association for helping to interest the students in the school band, for the construction and financing of our agriculture building, and for all the other things they have done to improve our school and community.

Senior Class History

Twelve long years ago we started our long journey through school as a very ambitious group of nineteen boys and girls, with Mrs. Steinbrunner as our first and second grade teacher. In the third and fourth grade we met our new teacher, Miss Kenney. We lost some and picked up a few along the way as we moved up stairs into the fifth and sixth grades, where Mrs. Beaty was our teacher. Paul Stolz, Olen Bollenbacher and Clifford Kuhn joined us there. In the seventh and eighth grades we moved up with the high school students. There we were proud to welcome Orla Kuhn and Jo Uhrick into our class. Our initiation day was a great success. We were taken to Sunset Skating Rink in a stone truck by the Sophomore class. Also in our Freshman year we welcomed another new member, Linda McCain. Jean Weaver, Faye Haines and Linda McCain left us during our Sophomore year, which left us with only thirteen members. Later in the year Olen Bollenbacher left us. At the beginning of our Junior year we were shocked to learn that Norman Wall and Marilyn (Charleston) Keller did not return. Toward the end of the year we were disappointed to lose the friendly face of Jerry Mae (Smitley) Kuhn.

Our class was well represented in our Junior-Senior Class Play, "Hillbilly Courtship", with Dick Butcher, Myrna Weaver, Jo Uhrick and Larry Coblentz taking part.

When we started our Senior year, we were still happy to have eight of our old members, who are struggling to continue this year. We were sorry to lose Paul Stolz.

At the beginning of the year we met with our sponsor, Mr. Ed Heimann, with whom we all enjoy working, and chose the following students to make the plans for our class activities: President, Jo Uhrick; Vice-President, Dave Hammitt; Secretary and Treasurer, Myrna Weaver. We were also highly honored this year to see Myrna Weaver crowned "Queen" of the high school.

Our class is very well represented on the basketball floor with Dick Butcher, Orla Kuhn, Larry Coblentz and Dave Hammitt playing on the varsity team.

We wish the very best of luck to all future graduates of J. H. S., and hope they enjoy these twelve years as we have.

Senior Will

I, Richard Butcher, will my ability not to understand business arithmetic to Alice Stuber and Audrey Kuhn, my Decatur girl friends (whom he thinks I have) to Roger LeFever, and my ability to get along with Mrs. Lee to James Reef. I also will my ability to tease the high school girls to anybody who can get away with it.

I, Larry Coblentz, commonly known as "Cob" will my books to Darrell Miller, my assignments, which I seldom finished, to Alice Stuber, my ability to get along with Cletus Heimann to Jim Wellman, and my idiotic laugh to anyone who can imitate it.

I, David "Hop" Hammitt, will my ability to get along with Cletus Heimann to James Reef, my seat in speech class to Darrell Miller, and my ability to supervise the seventh and eighth grade basketball boys the fourth period and still get my assignments to anyone who can handle the job.

I, Clifford Kuhn, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Darrell Miller and Esther Zehr, who both need it very much. I also give my seat in speech class to anyone who can make it feel comfortable with "Butcher" behind him.

I, Orla Kuhn, will to James Adams my position on the basketball floor, to Corrinne Gerber my ability not to understand government, and my car to anyone who has the ability to drive it like I do.

I, Roland Tumbleson, will my "Hot Rod", to James Adams if he will not drive under 80 m. p. h., my poor government grades to Pat Murphy, and my ability to stay out of school and get away with it to Darrell Miller, and my ability to tease the girls to anyone who can get by with it.

I, Jo Uhrick, will to Carol Wall some of my weight, hoping she has as much trouble losing it as I do, to Esibell Burkhart my place in the cheering section, and my ability to talk in government class without getting called down to anyone who can get by with it.

I, Myrna Weaver, will my brown hair to James Reef, providing he keeps it curled, my ability to get along with the boys to Judy Kauffman, and my ability to get along with the teachers to anyone who needs it.

Class History

In the year of nineteen hundred and forty-three, twenty-eight eager children enrolled in the first grade with Mrs. Steinbrunner as our teacher.

Helen Kenney was our teacher in the third and fourth grade. Mrs. Paul Beaty was our teacher in the fifth grade and Mr. Robert Paxson in the sixth grade. In nineteen hundred fifty-one, twenty-one green Freshmen entered High School. Seventeen students returned in our Sophomore year. At the beginning of our Junior year we enrolled fourteen members in our class.

We met with Mrs. Jack Lee, our sponsor on August thirty-first and elected the following class officers: President, Alice Stuber; Vice-President, Darrell Miller; Secretary, Patricia Murphy; Treasurer, Audrey Kuhn. Esibell Burkhart was chosen to be our candidate for queen.

Our first class party was held on September twenty-second at Audrey's, following a pot-luck supper and a hayride. Alice and Audrey serve as first team cheerleaders .

Class Prophecy

T. V. Announcer--This is "You Asked For It" coming from station W. J. H. S. Today we have as our guest, Mr. Richard Butcher of the New Corydon Bulldog's great baseball team. Here he is folks. How do you do, Mr. Butcher? Would you tell us some things about yourself

Butch--Yes, sir. I won every game that I pitched and also pitched four no-hit, no-run games in this years World Series.

T. V. Announcer--Fine! Now, do you know the rules of this game? We ask famous persons to appear on our show and grant them any reasonable request they have. What is your request?

Butch--I would like to see my classmates that I graduated with, and our class sponsor.

T. V. Announcer--We will turn on our magic T. V. and view each of them. Jo Uhrick is coming in on the screen. She seems to be enclosed in ropes. I hear cheering. The picture is getting clearer. There she is! A lady wrestler! Jolly Jo has won three championships in the last four years.

The picture is fading and another is coming into focus. It's all white. Snow! Why, this is Alaska! And there is Clifford Kuhn making with the sales talk. Cliff has been selling Westinghouse Refrigerators to the Eskimos. They say it's wonderful place to keep their food cold without freezing.

I hear something going scratch, scratch, like a pen writing on paper. It's Orla Kuhn writing a slow ticket for a motorist because he was going under 300 m. p. h. on a state highway. Orla was elected Chief of Police of Berne because he had such a good driving record and always drove carefully.

David Hammitt is showing on the screen now. And a good showing it is, too. Dave has a stock farm near Houston, Texas. He sells about 25,000 steers annually. They are used to make those famous Hammitt-burgers.

We switch now to West Virginia and Roland Tumbleson's famous farm. Roland and his wife crossed a strawberry plant with a milkweed. I can see a sign "Strawberries and Cream, Pick Your Own". The Tumbleson's retired with money they received from this discovery.

We can hear splashing now. There's someone swimming. It's Myrna Weaver, the famous woman swimming champion. She is known the world over as "Myrna the Mermaid". Myrna is just coming in on the home stretch of the English Channel. She made it in two weeks, four days and eight hours.

Larry Coblentz is coming into focus now. The scene is in Tennessee. Larry has established a promising business down among the hillbillies. He owns and operates a funeral home. Believe me! He has plenty of business with those family feuds going on all the time.

Coming on the screen now is your sponsor, Ed Heimann. He is a busy man these days. His four sons have increased to twelve and they have Heimann Gift Centers all over the world.

T. V. Announcer--Well, Butch, I guess that is all of them. What did you think of them?

Butch--Some of them surprised me and some didn't, I always thought Jo should be a wrestler, especially after some of those right hand punches that she landed.

Sophomores

Class History

We entered school in the fall of nineteen hundred and forty-four with twenty-eight members.

Mrs. Steinbrunner was our teacher in the first and second grade. Miss Helen Kenney in the third and fourth grade, Mr. Robert Paxson in the fifth and Mrs. Ruby Miller in the sixth grade.

When we entered Junior High School, our number had decreased to twenty. We lost another member in the eighth grade, leaving us with only nineteen members to enter the Freshman year. Our sponsor was Mrs. Lee. Sixteen of us made it to the Sophomore year with Mr. Fred Hoagland as sponsor. Mr. Hoagland left us at Christmas and he was replaced by Mr. Earl Hartman. We chose the following class officers: President, Butch Swan; Vice-President, Rose Ann Marble; Secretary and Treasurer, Ann Luginbill. Our class is well represented on the basketball team. Wayne Bollenbacher serves as the student manager. Colleen Egly and Rachael Stolz are second team cheerleaders. Our Fall Festival was a great success. We had the honor of crowning Myrna Lee Weaver of the Senior class "Queen" of our high school for the year 1953-54.
